

Scholarship Provider Application Deadlines

Do you know a Denver student seeking scholarships for postsecondary education? Some of our scholarship provider partners have opened their applications for the 2023-2024 cycle. Please help us spread the word and forward the list below to eligible Denver students!

2024 Deadlines

TheDream.US

TheDream.US scholarships are for highly motivated undocumented students who want to get a college education but are unable to afford the cost. They have no access to federal aid, limited access to state aid, and they sometimes face paying out-of-state tuition. We offer two scholarships.

Application Closes: February 29, 2024

The Denver Foundation

The Denver Foundation scholarship funds are as unique as their donors. Each scholarship fund has a different focus. One fund supports graduate students studying early childhood education, while another supports African American high school seniors attending East High School in Denver. Students can search scholarship opportunities HERE.

Application Closes: March 1, 2024

Latinas First

Scholarships are open to Colorado high school seniors or undergraduate college students who demonstrate a commitment to the Latina community, have a GPA of 2.5 or above, and demonstrate financial need.

Opened: December 22, 2023

Closes: March 15, 2024

Sachs Foundation

Undergraduate scholarships are open to any Colorado high school senior who identifies as Black. Graduate scholarships are open to any previous Sachs Scholar that graduated within the last three years.

Denver Scholarship Foundation -

Denver Scholarship Foundation (DSF) offers scholarships to graduates of Denver Public Schools (DPS) who meet eligibility requirements as described below and attend one of DSF's 30 college partners in Colorado. The scholarship is renewable for up to 5 consecutive years. Visit denverscholarship.org/dsf-scholarship for details.

Apply or renew at portal.denverscholarship.org.

To be eligible, students must:

- Attend a Denver Public Schools (DPS) high school for all four consecutive years before graduation and be included in the DPS October Count for all four years, unless you moved to Colorado during high school. Learn more.
- Graduate from a DPS high school with at least a 2.0 GPA. Learn about the required minimum high school GPA for each college type.
- Demonstrate financial need with a final Expected Family Contribution (EFC) of 16,640 or less. Learn more.
- Complete the FAFSA, CASFA, or other financial aid application as required by your college. Check with your college to confirm which application(s) you must complete and the priority financial aid deadline. Learn more.
- Complete any additional financial aid requirements as determined by your college's financial aid office by July 15.
- Complete all steps needed to qualify for Colorado in-state tuition or state aid. Learn more.
